

Georgia Association of Student Councils Teacher Advisor Conference

September 29–30, 2017 | UGA Conference Center and Hotel | Athens, Georgia

Register now at www.cviog.uga.edu/gasc

Join teacher advisors from across the state of Georgia to learn and share ideas about how to enhance your student council organization.

Cost: $125 (includes conference materials, refreshment breaks, Friday evening dinner and Saturday breakfast and lunch)

Just a few of the exciting sample topics offered

 Advisor 101 roles and responsibilities

 Developing student leadership and citizenship

 Advisor resources

 Service projects

 Parliamentary procedures

 Public speaking

 Increasing the level of student involvement

And many more...

CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

SEPTEMBER 29

4:00pm–6:00pm

Conference check-in

6:00pm–8:00pm

Keynote Session

SEPTEMBER 30

8:00am–4:30pm

General and break-out sessions

Networking opportunities

Pre-conference event! Friday September 29, 9am–4pm

Youth Leadership in Action: A Community Focus

Helping youth develop leadership skills by allowing students to experience hands-on activities and interact in real-life leadership opportunities.

Cost: $200 (includes curriculum materials and lunch)

Location: J.W. Fanning Institute, 1240 S. Lumpkin St., Athens, GA (across from the Georgia Center)

Developed by the University of Georgia's J.W. Fanning Institute for Leadership Development, curriculum objectives are designed to build skills starting from within the individual, moving to group and team processes, and ending with community/citizen involvement.

For more information about GASC membership and to enroll your school visit www.gasconline.net

Carl Vinson
Institute of Government
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

J.W. Fanning Institute
For Leadership Development
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Center for Continuing Education & Hotel
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA