We’re coming to you!

The Carl Vinson Institute of Government is partnering with Columbia County to offer its Central Savannah River Area Regional Management Development Program (MDP) in Evans, Georgia.

MDP offers comprehensive management and leadership development tailored for local government. The program is ideal for department heads and midlevel managers who need a skill boost, departments that need succession planning, and newly promoted staff who need management and leadership-specific training.

The program offers two ways to participate:

- Individual
  - Register to attend this regional MDP session.

- Group
  - Send your group to this regional MDP session.

Training and workforce development are critical to success. Participation in MDP is an investment in your organization’s future. The cost is $1,700 per participant and includes 20 days of instruction, textbook, assessment instruments, and individual coaching.

Don’t miss this incredible training opportunity!
